

Supplemental Listings

Description

- Supplemental Listings is a class of POI products that includes POIs obtained from third party or local specialty sources enabling enhanced destination selection
- These POIs have been mapped to Core POI categories but the quality of the content has not been verified

Data Features

- A higher quantity POI product designed to meet local market needs for increased POI counts within Core POI categories
- Content is based on basic attribution from the supplier for destination selection

Availability

- Commercially available

Format

- Available in POI-XML

Coverage

- More than 3.5 million POIs in eight countries globally